L-3 Communications Klein Associates, Inc. is pleased to announce that L-3 Nautronix Ltd. of Fremantle, WA will be providing sales, service and support for L-3 Klein sonar equipment in Australia and New Zealand.

Nautronix has a long history of providing sonar, electronics and software products to the military and commercial markets and we anticipate that L-3 Nautronix will provide a new level of service and support for L-3 Klein equipment in Australia and New Zealand. We expect that you will be pleased with the marketing, service and technical support provided by Nautronix on our behalf for our many current and future customers.

Since 1968, L-3 Klein has provided more commercial side scan sonar systems to Australian and New Zealand customers than any other manufacturer. For over 20 years Nautronix has been developing and servicing a variety of advanced sonar systems for military and commercial customers. Together with two other Nautronix divisions in the USA, Elac Nautik in Germany, and Ocean Systems in California, our team brings a wealth of sonar system experience to Australia and New Zealand.

We expect that Nautronix will be contacting you very soon to discuss your specific situation and requirements for sales and support. If you need assistance prior to that time or would like to discuss your specific project, please contact:
